

Hello Class 5,
 as a school, we have decided that rather than setting work for the Easter holidays we will suggest some activities – I am sure that many of you will have many ideas of your own. This Easter break is very different to the usual school holidays and having a routine can really help. Please keep up your diary, reading and those basic number skills but otherwise have fun in different ways and maybe learn a new skill or two. There is a Bahamas Project (details are on a separate sheet) and do use the class email to send photos of what you are up to or write a message.

Take care and stay safe,
 Mrs Furniss and Mr Jones

	Monday 6 th	Tuesday 7 th	Wednesday 8 th	Thursday 9 th	Good Friday	Saturday 11 th	Easter Sunday
GET ACTIVE	Whether you join in with Joe Wicks, Ote Mabuse, imagine Mr Jones is spurring you on or do something else make sure that you do some form of exercise every day!
ON THIS DAY	On this day, in 1896, in Athens, the opening of the first modern Olympic Games was celebrated.	On this day in 1906, Mount Vesuvius erupted and devastated Naples.	On this day in 1998, amidst floods, my son, Bertie was born.	Last year, it was claimed that wolves returned to the Netherlands! 	The day when Christians remember that Jesus Christ was crucified.	In 1970, on this day, Apollo 13 was launched destined for the moon but did it arrive?	The day when Christians celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ.
WHY NOT???	Why not organise a mini Olympics including events such as: - fastest up and down the stairs - egg and spoon race - most number of bunny hops in a minute	VOLCANIC ERUPTION How many words can you make from the above? The fewest letters is 3, no plurals, no proper nouns. What is the longest word you can make? What is the most apt?	Make a junk model with any scraps around the house that can float and support a piece of fruit or a vegetable.	Pitch your brains against the Brain Teaser! Virtual gifts for the first 5 correct solutions (nom, nom!). 	Why not make a surprise Easter card for your family or one for loved ones who cannot be with you and take a photo of it? 	Write a limerick (See below for examples)	On your daily exercise or around the house and garden, see who can find largest number of different things that are yellow .
OPTIONAL BAHAMAS PROJECT – see separate document
A limerick	We're a family in self-isolation

*There was once a mission to land on the moon.
But the trip sadly ended too soon.
When an oxygen tank failed
Their mission was curtailed
And those spacemen they simply flew home.*

*It's like being aboard a space station
Sometimes we feel glum
Sometimes it's great fun
But we're helping to save our great nation.*

