

Monday 27th April

W.A.L.T.: write a setting description

For your writing task this week, I would like you to describe your place of paradise to me. This can be a real-life place or somewhere fictional, I do not mind. You can spend some time researching this if you would like or you can refer to one of the images below.

You must describe a very clear picture of wherever it is you have chosen, using lots of detail.

Please write this in first person.

I would like no less than half an A4 page of writing.

You will be drafting and editing this piece therefore you may want to write on every other line, just like we do in class.

Look carefully at the WILF for the features that you need to include.

Please make sure it is handwritten, not typed.

Monday: plan and write up your first draft

Tuesday: edit and recheck your work and email it to me for feedback

Class4@blockleyschool.gloucs.sch.uk

W.I.L.F. What I'm Looking For.
Expanded noun phrases
Interesting adjectives
Similies
Metaphors
Alliteration
Personification
A range of sentence starters
Non-negotiables
Underline the date, W.A.L.T. and title
Use legible, joined handwriting
Copy accurately
Present neat, organised work
Capital letters, full stops, question marks, commas and correct use of apostrophes

You can refer to my example if you need any inspiration. I wrote my description based on the first picture.

As the blazing hot sun radiated proudly in the beautiful baby blue sky, the sea sparkled below like a sapphire jewel that had shattered into one million pieces. Refreshing and welcome, the scorching dry breeze carried a salty sea spray. The grains of silky, soft sand clung to the shore, hoping to be protected from the sun's fierce, fiery rays.