This week the spelling rule is using air. Air is a trigraph, this means there are three letters which makes 1 sound, in phonics we call these the phonemes and graphemes.

Below are some sentences however, there is a word missing. You need to work out which of the air words would fit in the sentence and then write it correctly in the space.

- 1) I have a of boots.
- 2) The tooth left a pound under my pillow.
- 3) Abby has red

4) There were a lot of rides at the

5) Oh no, I broke the

6) The dog barked.
